

The State of Maryland

Proclamation

From the Governor of the State of Maryland

LABOR DAY
SEPTEMBER 4, 2023

- WHEREAS, American workers have built our communities, laid the foundation for our democracy, and enabled our country to thrive and prosper; and
- WHEREAS, Labor Day honors the workforce in Maryland and throughout the United States and recognizes the countless ways working people create a more economically competitive Maryland; and
- WHEREAS, Throughout our nation and across Maryland, Labor Day is celebrated annually as a tribute to our country's workforce and acknowledges the power and importance of our labor unions to maintain fair pay and safety standards; and
- WHEREAS, Maryland is committed to diversifying our workforce, providing all with equal opportunities to succeed, and offering wages that reflect the dignity of our workers; and
- WHEREAS, Maryland is proud to join the country in celebrating Labor Day to honor the tireless efforts of the working men and women of our state.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WES MOORE, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF MARYLAND, do hereby proclaim SEPTEMBER 4, 2023 as LABOR DAY in Maryland, and call upon the people of our state to join in this observance

*Given Under My Hand and the Great Seal of the State of Maryland, this 4th day of September
Two Thousand and twenty-three*

[Signature]
Governor

Aruna Miller

Lt. Governor
Susan C. Lee

Secretary of State