October 1, 2026

Dear Friends:

¡Feliz mes de la herencia Hispana! On behalf of 6.3 million Marylanders, I am honored to welcome you to Carroll Community College for the 2026 Hispanic Heritage Month Celebration sponsored by the Governor's Commission on Hispanic and Latin American Community Affairs.

Maryland is home to over 800,000 Hispanic and Latino Americans. This event brings together generations of Hispanic and Latino Americans, neighbors, public servants, and fellow Marylanders to celebrate the beautiful tapestry of our state and recognize the incredible contributions of this community to our economic, social, and cultural advancement. I want to thank each member of the Governor's Commission on Hispanic and Latin American Community Affairs and everyone who helped make this happen for being the leaders our state deserves.

You've not only produced today's celebration – you work tirelessly throughout the year to advance equity, access, and opportunity for Hispanic and Latin American communities across Maryland. It's your hands that are in service to driving economic mobility, educational attainment, improved health outcomes, and greater civic engagement for Hispanic and Latino communities that uplifts our entire state.

Stories like those of the people in this room remind us that our history is our power. So let's keep celebrating what brings us together, honoring the communities that make us stronger, and leaving no one behind.

Sincerely,

Wes Moore

October 1, 2026

Dear Friends:

It is my great pleasure to extend warm greetings to everyone gathered for the 2026 Maryland Hispanic Heritage Month Celebration. While I regret that I cannot join you in person, I am honored to celebrate with you in spirit as we recognize the rich history, culture, and contributions of Maryland's Hispanic and Latino communities.

As the first Latina to serve as Speaker of the Maryland House of Delegates, this celebration holds special meaning for me. I know that the story of our community is one of courage, sacrifice, perseverance, family, and hope. It is the story of generations who carried their traditions with them while building new lives, strengthening their communities, and helping shape the Maryland we know today.

This year's theme, "Honoring Our Roots. Celebrating Our Heritage. Shaping Maryland's Future," is especially fitting as we commemorate our nation's 250th anniversary and reflect on Maryland's role in the American story. That story has always been written by people from many backgrounds and many places, each adding their experiences, talents, and dreams to our shared future. Hispanic and Latino Marylanders are an essential part of that story—not only through the contributions we celebrate from the past, but through the leadership, creativity, service, and determination that are shaping our state today.

Hispanic Heritage Month gives us an opportunity to take pride in where we come from, to share our traditions and stories with one another, and to remind the next generation that their voices and their dreams belong in Maryland's future.

I extend my sincere appreciation to the Governor's Commission on Hispanic & Latin American Community Affairs and the Governor's Office of Community Initiatives for bringing Marylanders together for this special celebration. And to everyone gathered at Carroll Community College: may this evening be filled with joy, connection, pride, and a renewed sense of possibility for all.

With warmest regards,

Joseline A. Peña-Melnyk
Speaker of the Maryland House of Delegates
