This Interpretive Guidance maybe revised or rescinded at any time. Citizens are urged to consult with their own legal counsel for advice about the application of the Order and this Interpretive Guidance to their particular facts and circumstances.
6. Clergy. Churches, synagogues, mosques, and other similar religious facilities are considered “Non-Essential Businesses” under the Order. Clergy and other staff of those religious facilities are permitted to continue conducting Minimal Operations under paragraph IV.c of the Order, provided that they comply with all applicable guidance from the CDC and MDH regarding social distancing. In the case of religious facilities, the term “Minimal Operations” includes, but is not necessarily limited to, facilitating remote worship.

7. Persons Providing In-Home Child, Elder, and Similar Care. Providing care for children, senior citizens, or persons having special needs at the Home of the children, senior citizens, or persons having special needs, as the case may be, is considered an Essential Activity under paragraph II.b.iii of the Order.

8. Prior Interpretive Guidance. Except as rescinded and superseded by paragraph 3 of OLC Interpretive Guidance document COVID19-07, the provisions of OLC Interpretive Guidance documents COVID19-04, COVID19-05, and COVID19-06 remain in effect and are applicable to the above-referenced Order.
