Executive Summary

Since the inauguration of Governor Hogan, the Governor’s Office of Crime Prevention, Youth, and Victim Services (Office) has awarded 180 grants to Baltimore City local government entities, totaling $108,925,282. The awarded government entities include Baltimore City agencies responsible for law enforcement, community policing, victim services, court services, prosecution, victim witness protection and relocation, and community services. In addition, $17,682,092 was awarded from the Children’s Cabinet Interagency Fund to the Family League of Baltimore City, which is designated by the City as its Local Management Board in accordance with § 8-301 of the Human Services Article.

Over the same time frame, the following subrecipients received the greatest amount of grant funding:

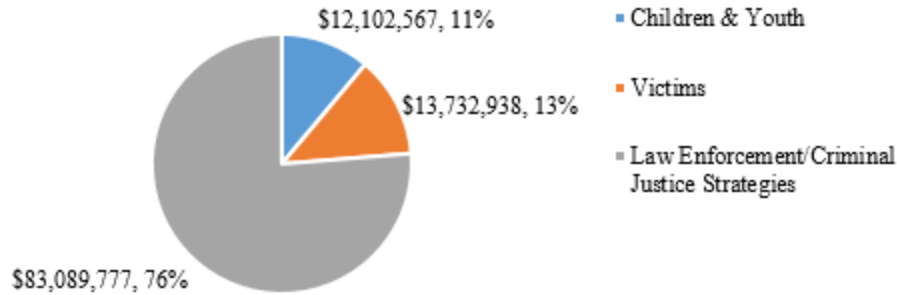

- The Baltimore Police Department received 75 grants, totaling $66.59 million.
- The Office of the State’s Attorney’s for Baltimore City received 66 grants, totaling $27.14 million.
- The Mayor’s Office of Criminal Justice received 15 grants, totaling $8.05 million

In addition, and under the leadership of the Hogan-Rutherford Administration, the Office has awarded funds to Baltimore City local government entities, based on three specific areas to fulfill its vision for A Safer Maryland: children and youth, criminal justice programs/law enforcement, and victim services (as illustrated below and on the following pages).

*Funding amounts for the City Jail Operations & Central Booking and the Pretrial Release Services Program are listed in the millions; whereas, the funding amounts for the remaining programs are listed as is.

Children and Youth

To improve the well-being of Maryland's children and youth, the Office works with partnering agencies to promote trauma-informed services, decrease juvenile delinquency through diversion efforts, reduce out-of-home placements when possible, address adverse childhood experiences (ACES) and decrease child abuse and neglect. Specific to Baltimore City, the following programs are currently in place to improve the well-being of children and youth:

<sup>1</sup> It is important to note that the Department of Public Safety and Correctional Services: Direct Funding for Baltimore City Programs illustration is current as of August 12, 2019.

Boys & Girls Clubs

Since June 2018, our Office has partnered with the Boys & Girls Clubs. Boys & Girls Clubs provide youth with positive programming such as sports and recreation, education, arts, character and leadership development, life skills, career development and more. In addition, the clubs provide both the Passport to Manhood (boys ages 8-17) and the SMART Girls (girls ages 8-18), relationship building activities with law enforcement, and community-based outreach activities.

In March 2019, the Office entered into a partnership with the Boys and Girls Club of Metro Baltimore providing $500,000 to support programming at the following Clubs: Brooklyn Homes (South Baltimore), Webster Kendrick (Northwest Baltimore), O'Donnell Heights (East Baltimore), and Westport (Southwest Baltimore). Additionally, on July 1, 2019, our Office provided $500,000 to the Boys and Girls Club of Metro Baltimore to support the expansion of Boys and Girls Clubs in Anne Arundel, Carroll, Cecil, Frederick, Harford, and Washington Counties. The selection of these specific clubs are aligned with jurisdictions that the agency is targeting through the MCIN program to bring positive youth programs to neighborhoods with violent crime issues. In June 2020, our Office provided a $450,000 grant award to the Boys & Girls Clubs of Metro Baltimore to serve 10 communities/neighborhoods in Baltimore City. Most recently, our Office awarded an additional $1.7 million to the Maryland Alliance of Boys & Girls Clubs to support the expansion of evidence-based youth programming in Baltimore City and 12 additional counties. This opportunity is estimated to serve 5,000 youth in Maryland.

Handle with Care

The Handle with Care program serves to increase trauma-informed approaches and to address Adverse Childhood Experiences to prevent future victimization and criminality. If a law enforcement officer encounters a child during a call, that child's name and three words, HANDLE WITH CARE, are forwarded to the school/child care agency before the next school day. The school implements individual, class, and whole school trauma-sensitive curricula so that traumatized children are "Handled With Care."<sup>2</sup> If a child needs more intervention, on-site trauma-focused mental healthcare is available at the school. In the fall of 2019, Baltimore City launched a Handle with Care pilot in the Northwestern and Western Districts. Efforts to implement the pilot are still underway.

To support this program, the Office provided grant funding, in the amount of $95,000, to cover the cost for the Handle with Care Coordinator (Coordinator) for Baltimore City. It is important to note that this is the only site in which the Office has funded a full-time Coordinator.

Police Athletic Leagues

Police Athletic League (PAL) programs work to prevent juvenile crime and violence by offering educational and extracurricular activities to participating youth. It also provides an alternative safe place for youth living in high crime areas, mentorship, civic/service opportunities, athletic/recreational activities, educational opportunities, and other resources.<sup>3</sup>

To support this program, the Office provided grant funding, in the amount of $610,648. The Office has also supported the expansion of PAL programs to foster healthy collaborations and relationships between youth, law enforcement, and local communities. Three of our funded Police Athletic League sites have been implemented in the Baltimore City area since the summer of 2018. These sites are being implemented as part of the Boys and Girls Club initiative as the Clubs oversee and coordinate the PAL programming.

Violence Intervention and Prevention Program

The Violence Intervention and Prevention Program (VIPP) supports effective violence reduction strategies, specifically gun violence, through evidence-based and/or evidence-informed health programs. Through its program, appropriations are provided to various crime prevention initiatives in Baltimore City, to include: Law Enforcement Assisted Diversion Program, Baltimore City State's Attorney Office for victims and witnesses of crime relocation, Baltimore Chesapeake Bay Outward Bound School, and strategic decision support centers in the Eastern and Western Districts of Baltimore City.

To support this program, the Office provided grant funding, in the amount of $2,553,877, to the Mayor's Office on Criminal Justice which represents the only local government subrecipient of VIPP program funds.

Local Management Board

Since 2015, $17,682,092 has been awarded from the Children's Cabinet Interagency Fund to the Family League of Baltimore City, designated by the City as its Local Management Board (LMB) in accordance with Human Services Article Title 8-301. The funding provides resources at the local level to strengthen community-based services to children, youth, and families with a focus on increasing childhood well-being, with intentional efforts to address childhood trauma and Adverse Childhood Experiences (ACEs), as well as race equity.

Criminal Justice Programs/Law Enforcement

The three agencies work in concert with federal, state, and local partners to ensure resources are provided and coordinated across disciplines to effectively and efficiently reduce and prevent violent crime.

Enforcement Efforts of the Maryland Department of State Police

Numerous task forces and initiatives are supported, led and coordinated by the Maryland Department of State Police to support crime reduction in Baltimore City..

- The Regional Auto Theft Task Force (RATT): Address auto theft problems in and around Baltimore City
- Child Recovery and Missing Persons: Focused on locating missing children, reducing incidents of juvenile human trafficking
- Drug Task Forces (DTF): MDSP supervises and directly participates in 13 local DTFs in partnership with numerous local agencies. MDSP also directly participates in 6 federal drug task forces throughout the state. Two of which are specifically focused on the Baltimore metropolitan area
- Firearms Enforcement: Highly trained experts in the field of firearms enforcement responsible for a wide array of firearms of investigations which cover the entire State of Maryland. Some of their investigations have direct links to Baltimore City.
- Fugitive Apprehension: The Maryland State Apprehension Team (MSAT) is aligned with the Capital Area Regional Fugitive Task Force (CARFTF), a U.S. Marshals Service (USMS) task force initiative. The CARFTF - Baltimore office is located at Maryland Department of State Police Headquarters.
- Gang Enforcement: The GEU is an exceptionally effective violent crime suppression unit, while fulfilling their gang enforcement mission. The GEU is the primary CED unit called upon to address crime in affected areas, including Baltimore City.
- Parcel Interdiction: The MDSP has three parcel interdiction units that consistently reach into Baltimore City with controlled deliveries of packages containing various types of illicit drugs.
- Technical Investigations, ICAC and Digital Forensics Laboratory: The DFL serves the digital forensic needs of the MDSP, the Internet Crimes Against Children Task Force (ICAC) and all Federal, State, and Local agencies upon request. BPD works with MDSP as an ICAC affiliate.

Maryland Criminal Intelligence Network

The Maryland Criminal Intelligence Network (MCIN) program is envisioned as a coalition of criminal justice agencies that collaborates and coordinates tactics, resources, and intelligence through comprehensive data sharing, cross-jurisdictional partnerships, effective policies, and supporting technologies. MCIN focuses on identifying, disrupting, and dismantling gangs and violent criminal networks involved in the distribution of illegal drugs, the use of firearms in crimes of violence, human trafficking, or other inherently violent criminal enterprises through enforcement, prevention, intervention, and information sharing. MCIN seeks to reduce violent crime by facilitating the formation of information from technology-enabled partnerships that lead to the improved investigation and prosecution of violent criminals and their networks.

To support this program, the Office provided grant funding, in the amount of $2,289,600 million to Baltimore City

In July 2018, Baltimore City implemented the MCIN program. Since this time, and with grant funding provided by the Office, Baltimore City:

- criminal organizations disrupted or dismantled - 18
- firearms seized - 124
- arrests made - 415
- individuals prosecuted - 226

Enhanced Visibility Patrol Initiative

The Baltimore Enhanced Visibility Patrol Initiative is a partnered effort in which Maryland State law enforcement agencies collaborate with the Baltimore Police Department to patrol high crime areas in an effort to detect and deter criminal activity while providing enhanced police visibility. Participating agencies include the Maryland Department of State Police, the Maryland Capitol Police, the Maryland Transportation Authority, the Maryland Transit Administration, and the Maryland Department of Natural Resources Police.

Since December 2017, and through this partnered effort, the agencies:

- Warrants Served - 4,741
- Handguns Recovered - 205
- Arrests - 5,689
- Premise Checks - 948,165
- Calls for Service - 121,688

Baltimore City Community Policing

In partnership with community stakeholders, the Baltimore Police Department's Neighborhood Community Policing Program (funded in FY 2016) and the Baltimore Police Department's Crime Reduction Strategy (funded in FY 2017 - 2020) aim to increase the trust and communication between the Baltimore Police Department and the community it serves. The program devotes police officers to walk foot patrol throughout the communities to strengthen public trust; and utilizes officers from the Community Collaboration Division to collaborate with community advocates, resolve neighborhood problems, and ensure the safety of the community members.

To support this program, the Office provided grant funding, in the amount of $36,579,608 to the Baltimore Police Department.

Baltimore City Crime Initiative

The Baltimore City Crime Initiative (BCCI), also known as the Baltimore Organized Crime Drug Enforcement Task Force (OCDETF) Strike Force, consists of 16 federal, state, and local law enforcement agencies, as well as prosecutors for the purpose of identifying and dismantling violent criminal networks operating in or having a connection to Baltimore City. Through its mission, the Baltimore OCDETF Strike Force seeks to:

- Coordinate the efforts of federal, state, and local law enforcement agencies in an effort to combat drug-related and gang-related violence;

- Identify and prosecute high-level narcotics-trafficking and money-laundering organizations;
- Pursue and prosecute violent individuals and organizations operating in the areas surrounding Baltimore; and
- Ultimately reduce violence in the community.

To support this initiative, the Department of Public Safety and Correctional Services has committed 15 personnel to these critical operations, at an estimated annual cost of $1.8 million (not including operating expenses such as rent, vehicle operations, telephone, etc.).

In addition to the support provided by the Department of Public Safety and Correctional Services, the Office collaborates with federal, state, and local partners.

In July 2020, and in response to the COVID-19 pandemic, all funds pertaining to the Baltimore Regional Intelligence Center (BRIC) were reduced. The funds that were provided ($1.7 million of the previous $2.7 million approved) allowed the Maryland Department of State Police hired 11 of the 13 PIN positions Since this time, the hired personnel have been trained, and are currently housed at the Maryland Coordination and Analysis Center (MCAC) to conduct analysis on violent crime pertaining to BCCI and to link crimes outside of Baltimore with a nexus to Baltimore City.

In addition, the Maryland Department of State Police Strike Force Group 7 was formed as a direct response to evidence that trafficking narcotics and dangerous drugs exist in Baltimore City. The task force is supervised by a detective sergeant and comprises two non-commissioned officers, two troopers, three state or local detectives, one federal agent and an administrative aide. These activities will result in effective state and federal prosecution for drug trafficking organizations and the crimes associated with them.

Criminal Justice Information System Operations

The Criminal Justice Information System (CJIS) is the State Criminal Justice Information System which is operated by the Department of Public Safety and Correctional Services and provides criminal history record information to the Baltimore Police Department in the course of its law enforcement operations and for employment requiring a criminal justice background check pursuant to Maryland law and regulations. The Department of Public Safety and Correctional Services regularly provides reports to the Baltimore Police Department containing arrest, warrant, and other data pertaining to its criminal justice efforts.

It is important to note that the costs associated with these efforts cannot be separately identified.

Governor's Special Operations Group

The Governor's Special Operations Group provides analytical case and operational support with the goal of identifying criminal organizations with a nexus to Baltimore City that operate in more than one county or jurisdiction supporting the Maryland Criminal Intelligence Network partners and operations. This Group has worked with Maryland Department of State Police command staff and personnel with the goal of closing the cross border crime gap between all regions of Maryland and Baltimore City.

Gun Violence Reduction Initiative

Through the Gun Violence Reduction Initiative, the Baltimore Police Department pursues gun offenders and traffickers, tracks gun offenders, and traces all guns recovered.

To support this program, the Office provided grant funding to the Baltimore Police Department, in the amount of $461,444.

Through this initiative, the Baltimore Police Department:

- Seized 4,230 guns
- Referred 799 gun cases for federal prosecution
- Disrupted or dismantled 11 firearms trafficking organizations

High Intensity Drug Trafficking Area Heroin Coordinator Program

The Baltimore heroin coordinator tracks fatal and non-fatal overdoses in the City and shares drug-related information with the High-Intensity Drug Trafficking Area (HIDTA), the Maryland Department of Health, and other coordinators throughout Maryland. This information, along with telephone extractions, are entered into the HIDTA database to be shared with the statewide heroin coordinator program.

To support this program, the Office provided grant funding, in the amount of $96,531.

Since its inception in 2018, and with grant funding provided by the Office, the heroin coordinator program in Baltimore City:

- Conducted 56 enhanced investigations
- Referred 503 individuals to the Public Health system.
- Entered 2,650 overdose cases into HIDTA's Case Explorer

Law Enforcement Assisted Diversion

The Law Enforcement Assisted Diversion (LEAD) program is a tool that empowers police to refer eligible individuals to public health services instead of making an arrest.

To support this program, the Office provided grant funding, in the amount of $1,154,078 to Behavioral Health System Baltimore in Baltimore City. It is important to note the Baltimore City LEAD Program received Edward Byrne Memorial Justice Assistance Grant funding in prior years and is currently a subrecipient of the federal Comprehensive Opioid Abuse Program (COAP) grant.

With the support of the awarded funds, the program:

- Provided program management and services to individuals who were referred by police.

- Served over 340 individuals since 2017, and exemplifies interagency collaboration with multiple operational partners including the Baltimore Police Department, the University of Maryland Police, the State's Attorney's Office, the Office of the Public Defender, and service providers.

Maryland Crime Research and Innovation Center

Administered by the University of Maryland, the Maryland Crime Research and Innovation Center (MCRIC) provides research and data analysis to inform crime reduction strategy and policy to help make Maryland communities safer.<sup>4</sup> MCRIC also provides academic expertise, conducts research, integrates data, builds partnerships between government, academia, and industry, and develops and evaluates innovative criminal justice strategies aimed at preventing and reducing crime.

To support this program, the Office provided grant funding, in the amount of $190,000.

In 2019, MCRIC partnered with the Baltimore Police Department, the Office, and Strategic Focus to implement the Strategic Decision Support Centers (SDSCs) in Baltimore. These Centers are currently funded in the Eastern, Western, and Southwestern Districts of the City. In 2020, the SDSCs were renamed the Baltimore Community Intelligence Center (BCIC) which include members of the Baltimore Police Department, the State's Attorney's Office, and community liaisons. Together, the prosecutors, police, civilian analysts, and community liaisons will:

- Jointly develop intelligence and build cases around the primary drivers of violence,
- Develop data-driven and intelligence-led deployment strategies,
- Track and investigate crime trends and patterns, and
- Collaborate with community partners to provide services for high-risk places and individuals.

Ops Seven Sentries and Seven Sentinels

The Seven Sentries and Seven Sentinels warrant apprehension initiatives were a collaborative operation of federal, state, and local law enforcement agencies to execute warrants on Baltimore City's most violent fugitives. The Seven Sentries occurred in March 2018, followed by the Seven Sentinels in March 2019.

To support this initiative, the Office worked with public safety partners.

Through this coordinated effort, the warrant apprehension initiatives resulted in the following:

- Seven Sentinels (February - March 2019)
  - Arrested 264 individuals from 400 open warrants
  - Seized guns, cash, and small amounts of drugs
- Seven Sentries (February - March 2018)
  - Arrested 259 individuals from 300 open warrants
  - Seized guns, cash, and small amounts of drugs

Police Recruitment and Retention

The Police Recruitment and Retention program provides funding to law enforcement agencies to recruit and retain qualified sworn police officers.

To support this program, the Office provided grant funding, in the amount of $819,900 to the Baltimore Police Department. This includes funding for a media awareness and advertising campaign as well as employee engagement survey software. In addition, the Hogan-Rutherford Administration has provided $7 million each year in recurring dollars to fund 75 additional officers within the Baltimore Police Department.

Project Connects as Re-Entry Services Partnership

The Behavioral health Leadership Institute at Johns Hopkins University provides a mobile assessment and treatment team of counselors, nurses, and doctors that operate as a Re-Entry Services (PCARS) partnership outside of their correctional facility, the Baltimore City Central Booking and Intake Center (BCBIC). Through the grant funded Project Connects inmates are assessed, and if accepted, are provided medication assisted treatment and referral to community programs. PCARS staff in conjunction with BCBIC staff assists in educating the offender population about the PCARS program and encourages offenders with substance use disorders to engage and continue treatment upon release of the facility.

Project Exile and Special Assisted United States Attorney

The Special Assistant U.S. Attorney's (SAUSA) program involves local and state attorneys who are detailed to the U.S. Attorney's Office (USAO) to prosecute federal cases that target violent repeat offenders and drug/firearms trafficking organizations in Baltimore City and throughout the State.

To support this program, the Office provided grant funding, in the amount of $736,242, to local government subrecipients in Baltimore City.

With the support of grant funds, the USAO:

- Number of EXILE defendants charged (USAO total) 73* the most in a decade.
- Number of EXILE defendants charged by SAUSAS 42
- Number of homicide and nonfatal shooting cases investigated 19
- Number of State gun cases assisted 5

The USAO also partnered with a coalition of federal, state, and local government officials for the development of a new violence reduction program called, "I Care Baltimore."<sup>5</sup> The multi-faceted program is designed to reduce violent crime by empowering community members, by highlighting programs that are making a difference in the City of Baltimore by offering alternatives to violence, and by increasing awareness of the consequences of federal prosecution for violent repeat offenders.

To support this program, the Office provided grant funding, in the amount of $375,000, to the Mayor's Office of Criminal Justice to build on the USAO's Project Exile which seeks to remove guns from the hands of criminals.<sup>6</sup>

Through this program, the coalition partnered with Urban One, Inc., in Baltimore, which provides a suite of assets including on-air with five radio stations, online with digital and social media, and onsite at different locations to join in the fight against the violence in Baltimore City.

Project Safe Neighborhoods

Project Safe Neighborhoods is a nationwide initiative that brings together federal, state, local and tribal law enforcement officials, prosecutors, and community leaders to identify the most pressing violent crime problems in a community and develop comprehensive solutions to address them. Each local program is contoured to fit specific violent crimes problems in that community. This program requires collaboration from the United States Attorney's Office.

To support this program, the Office provided grant funding, in the amount of $1.09M to support the Project Safe Neighborhoods program in Baltimore City.

Renewed Partnership between Division of Parole and Probation and Baltimore Police Department

The Department of Public Safety and Correctional Services, the Division of Parole and Probation has increased its presence within Baltimore City police districts since August 2019. Currently, there are 35 parole and probation agents reporting each week. This increased presence and collaboration has resulted in the following:

- 7,519 joint home visits conducted by City police and parole and probation agents from August 2017 through July 18, 2019, which has resulted in 251 violation requests; and
- 35,943 offenders reporting to the police districts from August 2017 through July 18, 2019, which has led to 283 warrants served at the districts and 207 violation requests submitted for persons reporting to the districts during this period.

Safe Streets Baltimore

Safe Streets Baltimore is an evidence-based, public health approach to reduce shootings and homicides within targeted communities in Baltimore City where homicide is one of the greatest risk factors for teenagers and young adults. This program is the longest running Cure Violence replication in the country and approaches violence from the perspective that it is a learned behavior which can be prevented using disease control methods. Outreach is an integral component of programming and includes high-risk conflict mediation, relies on outreach workers with “street” credibility to engage high-risk youth aged 14-25 years in order to intervene in conflicts or potential conflicts, and promotes alternatives to violence.

To support this program, the Office provided grant funding, in the amount of $9,024,080, to local government subrecipients to fund six Safe Streets sites in Baltimore City.

Semantica Data Sharing

The Semantica project enables users to search across multiple databases with a single query to identify patterns, relationships, and connections. Through Semantica, the High-Intensity Drug Trafficking Area (HIDTA) shares state jail call information with current Maryland Criminal Intelligence Network users. The Baltimore Police Department and the State’s Attorney’s Office also participate in this project.

To support this program, the Office provided grant funding, in the amount of $274,672.

Sex Offender Compliance Enforcement in Maryland

The Baltimore Police Department’s Monitoring Sex Offender Compliance program assists in developing and implementing strategies specifically intended to provide assistance with complying with the laws surrounding the Maryland Sex Offender Registry. The program tracks the compliance of local sex offenders who are required to register/re-register with the Maryland Sex Offender Registry.

To support this program, the Office provided grant funding, in the amount of $1,002,107 to local government subrecipients.

Violence Prevention Initiative

The Division of Parole and Probation oversees the Violence Prevention Initiative (VPI) which is a statewide commitment to specifically target and reduce violent crime by using specific criteria identifying violent, repeat offenders, and subjecting them to enhanced supervision. According to the Department of Public Safety and Correctional Services, the Division of Parole and Probation has 59 specialized agents in Baltimore City that are assigned to VPI at an estimated annual cost of $5.4 million (not including other operational costs such as rent, computers, phones, etc.). VPI cases account for 3-4% of the active cases for Baltimore City. Specialized staffing is broken down as follows:

- VPI: 20 parole and probation agents
- Sex Offender: 20 parole and probation agents
- Domestic Violence: 10 parole and probation agents
- Drug Treatment Court: 5 parole and probation agents
- Mental Health Court: 4 parole and probation agents

War Room Baltimore City

The War Room is a multi-agency collaborative project involving the Baltimore City States' Attorney's Office, the Division of Parole and Probation, the Baltimore Police Department, and the Office of the Public Defender. This project provides a focused response to Baltimore City's violent offenders through a comprehensive program of electronic information sharing that identifies the most violent offenders and determines/tracks probation and parole status, apprehension and service of warrants, judicial prioritization, and criminal case flow management reform.

To support this program, the Office provided grant funding, in the amount of $3.67M to local government subrecipients.

Victim Services

The Office strives to make certain that the services, programs, and policies provided for crime victims promote and ensure victims have: the right to be safe in their homes and in their communities; the right to have increased access to services; the right to possess the requisite tools to become self-sufficient in the aftermath of criminal activity; and the indispensable right to receive restitution. Specific to Baltimore City, the following programs are currently in place to ensure crime victims receive the necessary resources and services:

Baltimore City Witness Relocation Funding

Relocation services provide safety to victims and witnesses and, in turn, encourage participation in police investigations and prosecutions that lead to greater conviction rates for violent offenders and the prevention of future criminal activity. The Victim Services Unit, a division within the Office, has been collaborating with the Maryland State's Attorneys Association, the Baltimore City State's Attorney's Office, as well as the Baltimore Police Department with regards to witness relocation funding. To support this program, the Office provides passthrough and direct grant funding, in the amount of $4,720,000, to local government subrecipients. In addition, the Office recently requested a meeting with the Mayor's Office on Criminal Justice, the Baltimore Police Department, and the State's Attorney's Office to work toward an acceptable spending plan for the awarded funds.

Criminal Injuries Compensation Board

The Criminal Injuries Compensation Board (CICB) is a remedial body designed to provide aid and assistance to victims of crime in Maryland. Compensation awards allow the victim(s) to pay debts, receive counseling that may be needed after experiencing trauma, obtain new housing and/or transportation, secure new employment, pay funeral expenses owed by the victim, and many other related needs. Victim compensation is a concrete example of restorative justice.

Since January 2015, CICB has processed 3,208 claims, totaling $9,022,255.15. It is important to note that the greatest number of crime victims served by CICB are those residing in Baltimore City. In addition, and since January 2015, there have been over 1,000 walk-in victims, and over 200 in-person hearings requested by crime victims that originate from this region.

Sexual Assault Kit Testing Grant Program

The Sexual Assault Kit Testing Grant Program (SAKT) provides funding to the Maryland Department of State Police and local law enforcement agencies to pay for the testing of sexual assault evidence collection kits (SAEKs) by forensic laboratories.

To support this program, the Office provided grant funding, in the amount of $314,698, to the Baltimore Police Department for the testing of SAEKs in Baltimore City.

Through this support, the grant funding provided equipment upgrades and salary support for one DNA technician. In addition, and at the time of submission, the Baltimore Police Department estimated a backlog of 63 untested kits that had been collected since May 1, 2018.

Survivors of Homicide Victims Grant Program

The Survivors of Homicide Victims Grant Program (SOHG) addresses the specific needs of family members and other survivors of homicide victims whose lives have been traumatized by these violent acts. Services include, but are not limited to, providing and facilitating referrals to appropriate legal and mental health counseling services for survivors of homicide victims including specialized support services to adult and minor survivors.

To support this program, the Office provided grant funding, in the amount of $154,009, to local government subrecipients.

Victims of Crime Act

The Victims of Crime Act (VOCA) grant program provides funding to improve the treatment of victims of crime by providing them with the assistance and services necessary to aid their restoration after a violent criminal act, and to support and aid them as they move through the criminal justice process. Victim assistance includes services such as crisis intervention, counseling, emergency transportation to court, temporary housing and criminal justice support and advocacy.

To support this program, the Office provided grant funding, in the amount of $13,609,199, to local government subrecipients in Baltimore City.
